

For Immediate Release

Beatport and Technopol Launch Bi-Monthly KNAL Stream, Direct From Paris

(Berlin - June 9th, 2022) Beatport, the global leader of music for DJs, producers, and their fans, announced today, a collaboration with Technopol, the largest and most prominent association for electronic music in France.

As part of the partnership, Beatport will host two streams from the legendary Parc de la Villette in Paris every month. Aptly called the KNAL Stream, the location offers views of the Canale St Martin, and each broadcast will showcase a diverse array of incredible local talent, offering growth and visibility to these exciting French artists. DJ equipment will be provided by PioneerDJ, a Beatport partner, and Beatport will be organizing monthly webinars on a variety of topics. Through this partnership, Beatport hopes to better serve local French artists and labels, helping introduce them to a wider global audience.

The first stream will kick off on June 23rd. Keep you posted on the lineup and future dates.

Beatport is also heading to Paris Electronic Week 2022, which takes place from 21 - 24 September.
